

BEST VISUAL ARTIST

Janice Lowry

WWW.JANICELOWRY.COM

Is this Santa Ana assemblage artist the very best artist working in O.C. today? Well, maybe, maybe not. All we can say is that we spent days struggling to think of the county's "best" artist and trying to figure out how exactly you define "best" for something so maddeningly subjective, and finally we said screw it and we wrote down Lowry's name because we just really like her little shadowbox monsters made out of bits of old toys and stuff. Maybe she's not sitting on piles of awards and her name isn't exactly a household word, but as of our deadline Janice deserves the nod as much as anyone.
